

A circular wreath of various botanical specimens, including ferns, red leaves, orange flowers, and purple flowers, surrounds a central white circle containing text.

NORTH HIGHLANDS
NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

Community Lecture Series

Summer 2023

Purpose

The NHNA Community Lecture Series will offer an engaging series of positive topics relevant to North Highlands neighborhood presented by knowledgeable neighbors familiar with the subject matter.

Primary goal

To find purposeful means of gathering neighbors together around common interests.

North Highlands Neighborhood Community Lecture Series
7:00 PM at Highland Hills Baptist Church
370 Briarcliff Road, Macon, GA 31211

DATE	PRESENTER
June 1	"The Historic Evolution of North Highlands Neighborhood" Miki Fluker, Former North Highlands Neighborhood Association President and long-time resident of North Highlands and Shirley Hills
June 15	"The Rise and Fall of Baconsfield Park" Mary Anne Berg Richardson, Student of the history of Baconsfield Park and former North Highlands resident
June 29	"Birding in North Highlands" Dr. Jim Ferrari, Professor of Biology at Wesleyan College
July 13	"Night Sounds of North Highlands Mammals, Birds, Amphibians and Insects" Elizabeth Causey, Expert in nature sounds and North Highlands resident
July 27	"North Highlands Architecture" Jim Barfield, Leading advocate for Macon's historic and architectural heritage
August 10	"North Highlands During the 1950s" Current and former North Highlands residents Katey Jessup Evans, Sam Lamback, Hu Lovein, Shep Marsh, Suzy McCowen McCullough, and Louise Lamback Watson
August 24	"Native American Presence and Erasure in North Highlands" Dr. Matt Jennings, Professor of History at Middle Georgia State University and President of Ocmulgee Mounds Association

Summary

Neighborhood fellowship gives us an opportunity to gather in a social setting to get to know and support each other and encourage neighborliness.

What better way to encourage and achieve this goal than through the gathering of neighbors with common interests.

